

Treasures Of Heaven

make for yourselves purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, - Lk. 12:33

A♭ - 4 - SOL

T. C. O'Kane

T. C. O'Kane

1. There's a crown in heaven for the striv - ing soul, Which the
2. There's a rest in heaven for the wear - ry soul,— 'Tis for
3. There's a joy in heaven for the mourn - ing soul; Though the
4. There's a peace in heaven for the troub - led soul, Where the
5. There's a home in heaven for the faith - ful soul, In the bless - ed Je - sus him - self will place On the head of each who shall all by care and by sin op - pressed; To the sons of God it re - tears may fall all the earth - ly night; Yet the clouds of sad - ness will wick - ed shall from their troub - ling cease, And to all the saints like a man - y man - sions pre - pared a - bove, Where the glo - ri - fied shall for - faith - ful prove E - ven un - to death, In the heaven - ly race main - eth sure, And the proph - et say 'tis a "glor - ious rest."

break a - way, And re - joic - ing come with the morn - ing light.
riv - er flow, through the end - less a - ges the stream of peace.
ev - er sing, Of a Sav - iour's free and un - bound - ed love.

Chorus
Oh, may that crown _____ In heaven be mine,
Oh, may that crown _____ in heaven be mine,

And I a - mong the an - gels shine; Be thou, O
 And I a-mong the an-gels shine;

Lord! my dai-ly guide, Let me ev-er in thy love a - bide.
 Be thou, O Lord my dai-ly guide;